

CANBERRA RAPE CRISIS CENTRE

NGURU PROGRAM

“Sexual Violence is a Community
Problem with Community
Solutions”

Working Against Sexual Violence within the Indigenous Community

COUNSELLING & SUPPORT

- Counselling survivors of sexual violence
- Women, children & men
- Supporting family members
- Supporting the wider community
- Crisis Support
- Referrals & Case Management

ADVOCACY

- Court support
- Advocacy with other agencies
- Advocacy of Indigenous needs with the sexual assault services
- Advocacy within the broader communities

COMMUNITY SUPPORT

- Education and Training on Indigenous issues
- Identification of key needs of the Indigenous community
- Supporting & Debriefing with Indigenous and non-Indigenous workers

COMMUNITY EDUCATION

- 3 hr Community workshop
- 1 day Workshop for non-Indigenous workers
- 2 day workshop for indigenous workers
- Hear our Youth program
- Community Protective Behaviors education program 5 years – 10years.

REPRESENTATION

- Meetings with politicians and bureaucrats
- Meetings with other service providers
- Attendance at ceremonial and public functions
- Attendance at forums and conferences

CONTACTS

Canberra Rape Crisis Centre

(02) 6247 8071 (Business Line)

Confidential Address (Central)

(02) 6247 2525

24 Hour Crisis Support

nguru@rapecrisis.org.au

betty@rapecrisis.org.au

“Whilst communities feel shame in admitting that Sexual Violence, Child Sexual Assault/Abuse occurs in their communities, there is more SHAME when communities do nothing about it.”

Walk against Sexual Assault and Family Violence 2006